My name is Kuchel Mario. During the first term holidays of 2018, I travelled to Mbale, that beautiful town of the Bagisu. I had gone to visit my eldest brother and his family. I went there aboard Elgon Flyer Bus. This was the fifth time I was visiting them.

I enjoyed this journey all the way from Kampala City to Nkoma in Mbale where they live. Our first stop over was at Mabira Forest. At this place, there were vendors selling roast "gonja" (roast ripe bananas) chicken, meat and liver. I bought "gonja" and a bottle of water.

This bus company offers the best services because every passenger was given free serviettes by the conductors to clean their hands. I also enjoyed looking at the beautiful scenery of sugarcane and tea plantations along the highway.

In Nkoma, I had fun with my two nieces and a nephew as we swam and rode bicycles. I spent a fortnight in Mbale and returned home safely. I am happy because I enjoyed this journey. Questions

The day Opio bought a new car,
Was all full of joy in Etuku Village,
All the relatives and friends were happy.

To celebrate with a man of their own,
For the achievement he had made,
Of being the first person to buy a car.

People sang all songs of praises,
To the man who had worked tirelessly,

Every year in the month of August, Juma and his family go to his home village of Walata in Mbarara near Mt. Rwenzori. One Saturday morning on 15th August, Juma and children were driving along Kampala – Masaka Rd. in his new Toyota Carina when the car tyre rode on a sharp nail and burst. The car almost knocked a cyclist riding on the opposite side of the road as it moved from one side of the road to another. Luckily, Juma was a steady and experienced driver. He managed to steady the car until it came to a sudden stop just two metres away from the cyclist.

Juma had some tools in the toolbox in the boot of the car, but he could not repair the car tyre as he did not have adhesive and a piece of an old tyre to patch the hole. He used a spanner to unscrew the bolts and take the burst tyre off the rim. He used a 'boda-boda' to transport the tyre to Matoyo's garage at Buwama where it was repaired and inflated with air. He fixed the tyre on the car and resumed the journey at around noon.

THE ACCIDENT

One Friday morning, when two friends of mine and I were going to school, we saw a motor accident at the junction near Kakoba Road. The victim of the accident was a seven-year-old Kwezi of P.2 at Little Angels Primary School. He was riding his bicycle to school when a car knocked him down.

The car which caused the accident lacked repair and it was in a poor mechanical condition. It left kwezi's leg broken. Kwezi could neither walk nor stand.

We ran to our class teacher and told him how Kwezi had got an accident at the junction near Kakoba Road. Our class teacher went to the headmaster and we saw them driving out in the school Van. Toolbox in the hand very early every morning,
The honest mechanic goes to the garage
To repair burst car tyres with spanner and tubes
So that you can drive safely and comfortably.

Toolbox in the hand very early every morning,
The honest mechanic goes to his place of work
To repair broken down engines and gearboxes    So that you can drive safely and smoothly.

Seated in a strong and reliable breakdown
The honest mechanic is called in the afternoon    To tow broken down cars to the garage
So that they are soundly repaired for safe use.

Toolbox in the hand very late every evening,
The hungry, tired mechanic goes home every evening    To take food, clothes and other comforts to his family    So that they can stay happy, hopeful and united.

BALU LOSES ELECTIONS FOR GAMES PREFECT AT FFENE PRIMARY SCHOOL

Ffene Primary School organises elections for prefects in the second week of September every year. The prefects are elected to help teachers in maintaining discipline and order in the school. The exercise always starts with picking forms from Mr. Pingu, the chairperson of the body that organises elections in the school. After filling the forms, the pupils wishing to stand in the elections then look for three teachers on the staff to support them by signing on the forms. The signed forms are then returned to the committee made up of seven teachers and two pupils from P. 7. The committee then writes a list of pupils allowed to contest for different posts.

Last year Balu decided to take part in the elections for prefects. He picked, filled and had his forms signed by Mr. Oto, his science teacher, Miss. Abo, his teacher of English and Mrs. Kuno, his teacher of Mathematics. He returned the forms to the organizing committee. He was lucky because the committee allowed him to contest for the post of Games Prefect.

At first Balu's campaigns went well in P. 3, P. 4 and P.5. Things started going wrong in P. 6 when the pupils in the class asked him to tell them the game he participated in. Balu had no answer as he had none. To make matters worse, he tried to bribe the pupils with sweets. On 11th September, which was the election day, Balu came second after losing to Ekemu, who was the captain of the school football team. Kato, the other pupil who contested for the same post came third in the election.
