PEACE AND SECURITY IN MIREMBE VILLAGE

In Mirembe village, people love peace and security. Their local council one chairperson, Mr. Galiwango usually encourages them to work together as a community to maintain peace and security at all times.

In order to achieve their goals, the chairman organizes peace and security meetings every last Sunday of the month. During the meetings, the citizens suggest and pass resolutions on various ways of promoting peace and security in their village. On some occasions, the chairman invites the District Police commander (DPC) to educate the citizens of the dangers of insecurity and mob justice.

At the entrance to the L.C.I chairman office, there is the village motto, "Together we can achieve peace and security in Mirembe village." This motto has helped the citizens to reduce the rate of offences such as defilement, rape, theft, mob justice, witchcraft etc.

The offences have been reduced through networking, for instance, all visitors in this village are always introduced to the L.C. I office. In addition, the landlords and landladies usually report new tenants, the L.C.I office as well. This is done to avoid living with wrong doers or criminals in Mirembe village.

One day, a young man called Okuchi was found trying to steal the neighbour's goat. The owner of the goat saw him and made an alarm which assembled the citizens. They wanted to set him on fire but luckily the chairman arrived and called the 999 Police patrol. Later on, Okuchi was taken to the police station to make a statement. The O.C station warned him of the dangers of stealing. Okuchi promised to change.

When the police set him free, Okuchi completely changed in behavior. He learnt to work hard and live in peace and security. He started making bricks and rearing poultry. Besides, the NAADS programme officer at Nangabo sub-county headquarters gave him a heifer. Okuchi is now a very hardworking and law abiding citizen.

KEEPING PEACE AND SECURITY IN OUR COUNTRY

My name is Naluga. I go to Bukomwero primary School. I am in primary five.

Last _____, our teacher of English, Mr. Ketta Emmy taught _____

About keeping peace and security in our _____.

First of all, he _____ us vocabulary related to peace and security. The vocabulary included police station, magistrate, courts, _____ handcuffs and eye witnesses.

He said that law _____ must always be arrested and taken to the police station. He advised us to respect one another _____ to live in peace and harmony.

However, he discouraged us and other citizens to practice mob justice because sometimes we may kill people who are _____.

Mr. Ketta also taught us about some _____ organs which help to keep peace and security in our country such as the Police Force and the _____.
