RELIGIOUS WARS IN BUGANDA

- ✚ In September 1888, Mwanga planned to get rid of remaining Christian and Muslim leaders by leaving them to starve on an island in crocodile-infested Lake Victoria. Word of his plan leaked out and a rebellion by Christians and Muslims together brought Mwanga's brother Kiweewa to the throne.
- ✚ In October 1888, the Muslims seized power, expelled the Christian leaders and, when Kiweewa refused to be circumcised, deposed and killed him, replacing him with another brother, Kalema.
- ✚ In December 1888, Mwanga won support from Christians and in April 1889 advanced against the Buganda capital. He was defeated, but the Christian forces, led by the Protestant chief Apollo Kaggwa, retook the capital, enabling Mwanga to enter it triumphantly on 11 October 1889.
- ✚ The Muslims took refuge in the neighbouring kingdom of Bunyoro, which helped them to return victoriously in November 1889, but they suffered a decisive defeat in February 1890 and withdrew again to Bunyoro.
- ✚ In 1888, Britain authorised the Imperial British East Africa Company to administer the East African territory assigned to Britain in its 1886 treaty with Germany.
- ✚ In November 1889, Mwanga asked the Company's agent Frederick Jackson for help. Jackson hesitated to accept the request, because he had been given orders not to enter Buganda.
- ✚ Dr. Carl Peters, an agent of the German East Africa company (GEACo), learning of Mwanga's appeal, decided to respond to it. He arrived at Mengo, Mwanga's new capital, a fortnight after the February 1890 defeat of the Muslims. Since these still presented a threat, Mwanga accepted his offer of a treaty.
- ✚ The agreement that Peters made with Mwanga was nullified by the 1 July 1890 treaty between Britain and Germany, which extended inland the line of division between their areas of influence in East Africa, leaving Buganda in the British sphere.
- ✚ The Imperial British East Africa Company (IBEACO) sent Frederick Lugard, its military administrator, to Mengo, where in December 1890 he got Mwanga to accept for a period of two years an agreement with the Company. This agreement was advantageous for Mwanga when the Muslims in Bunyoro made another attempt to recover power.

- ✚ Friction between the Catholic and the Protestant parties led to fighting in January 1892 in Mengo.

- ✚ Lugard supported the Protestants against the stronger Catholic side in the fighting, forcing Mwanga and the Catholics to flee. Lugard managed to persuade Mwanga to return from German territory, where he had taken refuge, to Mengo on 30 March 1892 and to make a new treaty. This treaty assigned separate areas to Protestants (the largest area), Catholics and Muslims (only a small area); Mwanga himself nominally became a Protestant.

- ✚ With the aid of the Church Missionary Society, which used the deaths of their martyrs to win broad public support in Britain for acquiring Uganda, Lugard then successfully dissuaded Prime Minister William Ewart Gladstone and his cabinet from abandoning Uganda. The powers of the company were transferred to the British Crown on 1 April 1893 and on 27 August 1894, Mwanga accepted Buganda being made a British protectorate.

- ✚ However, on 6 July 1897 he declared war on the British. Defeated on 20 July in Buddu (in today's Masaka District), an area assigned to Catholics in the 1892 treaty, he again fled to German East Africa (Tanzania). He was declared deposed on 9 August. After a failed attempt to recover his kingdom, he was exiled in 1899 to the Seychelles, where he was received into the Anglican Church. He died in 1903, aged 35.

- ✚ Charles Gordon (in 1874) was appointed as the 2nd governor of the Equatorial province replacing Sir Samuel Baker.
- ✚ Gordon built fort Mruli near Masindi.
- ✚ He was more successful in creating additional trading posts in this area.
- ✚ In 1876, his views crashed with those of the Egyptian governor of Khartoum forcing him to go back to London. Emin Pasha
- ✚ In 1878, Gordon was succeeded by the Chief Medical Officer of the Equatorial province Mehemet Emin Pasha originally known as Eduard Schnitzer.
- ✚ Pasha built Fort Wadelai in the Equatorial province. ✚
- Pasha made his headquarters in Lado (now in South Sudan) ✚
- He faced Mahdi revolt in Southern Sudan.
- ✚ Pasha managed to request assistance from Britain via Buganda.
- ✚ He was later rescued by Henry Morton Stanley and Emin Pasha was the last governor of the Equatorial Province.
- ✚ In 1898, the Mahdist state was overthrown by the Anglo-Egyptian force led by the British Field Marshal Lord Kitchener and the Equatorial was administered by the British.
