MBABAZI JOHN LOSES ELECTIONS

Muhammad Daadir was a pupil in Al-Bushra Islamic Junior School found in Mengo. He was in Primary Five. Last year the school held elections for all the prefects. Madam Margret was the teacher in charge of these elections. There were twenty candidates who campaigned for two weeks before the elections. Muhammad Daadir and Bogere Tom stood for the post of Head Prefect.

Bogere Tom was in Primary Six. He was very small but he was a good speaker. Muhammad Daadir was a big boy. Many children hated him for abusing others. He bought sweets so that children would vote for him. Bogere always said, "I do not have sweets, but I have good news for you." This made voters happy. On the election day, Bogere Tom won the elections for head prefectship.
