TOPIC: TRAFFIC DANGERS

ASPECT: COMPREHENSION

DIALOGUE

Read the dialogue below and answer the questions that follow in full sentences.

CROSSING THE ROAD (MK BK 6, P.11)

Zurah: Don't cross the road anyhow, you may be knocked down by a vehicle.

Agaba: Teach me how to cross the road then.

Zurah: It is always safe to cross at the zebra crossing if there is one.

Agaba: What if there is none?

Zurah: Then you must be careful before crossing the road. First look right, look left, then look right again. You may then cross the road if there is no vehicle coming.

Agaba: Who taught you road safety?

Zurah: My mother did. She is a traffic police officer. Mother always tells me a lot about safety on the road. Her duty is to make sure that people are safe on the road.

Agaba: Zurah, tell me more about road safety.

Zurah: My mother says that drivers should be mindful of other road users especially pedestrians.

Agaba: Don't you think our classmates need to learn more about road safety? We should tell our teacher to invite your mother to school to talk to the whole class about road safety.

Zurah: That's a very good idea!

Questions:

1. What is the likely danger when one crosses the road anyhow?
2. What is a zebra crossing?
3. What is Zurah's mother?
4. Mention any three crimes committed by motorists on the road.
5. What is the duty of a traffic police officer?

WEEK SIX

LESSON FIVE

TOPIC: TRAFFIC DANGERS

ASPECT: ADVERBS

Verbs and Adverbs

Verbs are doing words or words that express actions.

Examples

to drive	to brake
to ride	to signal
to apologise	to pacify to tow	to advise to collide	to wreck
to injure	to stop

In order to add more information to a verb, we use adverbs.

Adverbs are words which describe how, when, where, or to what extent an action is done.

For example:

He drove –very fast.

-to Rwanda.

- at night.

-carefully.

In the above example, the following types of adverbs are shown.

1. Adverbs of degree

These tell us to what extent an action is done. e.g. very, really, completely, extremely, anyhow, much, almost, quite, rather...

2. Adverbs of place

These tell us where an action is done. e.g. Rwanda, here, there, somewhere, nowhere, everywhere, indoors, at home, on the table...

3. Adverbs of time

These tell us when an action is done. e.g. at night, in the morning, immediately, just, already...

4. Adverbs of manner

These tell us how an action is done. e.g. carefully, well, properly, skilfully, easily...

5. Adverbs of frequency

These tell us how often an action is done. e.g. always, seldom, usually, sometimes, rarely, ever, normally...

6. Adverbs of duration

These adverbs tell us the period a given action lasted. e.g. an hour, week, a year.....

Exercise

A. Make five sentences using these adverbs.

1. easily
2. skilfully
3. extremely
4. accidentally
5. seldom

B. Underline the adverbs in these sentences.

1. My friend is very smart.
2. I have put my uniform on that table.
3. We usually play football.
4. Break time has just ended.
5. My father told me to put my shoes here.

WEEK SIX

LESSON SIX

TOPIC: TRAFFIC DANGERS

ASPECT: ADVERBS

Formation of Adverbs

Most adverbs are formed from adjectives especially by using the suffix- ly.

a) Change 'y' to 'i' and add 'ly'

Adjective	Adverb
lucky	luckily
heavy	heavily easy temporary voluntary stealthy necessary unnecessary happy merry shabby hearty steady angry hungry greedy lazy noisy clumsy

b) Drop 'e' and add 'y'

humble	humbly simple	simply horrible terrible possible comfortable gentle noble sensible miserable probable suitable able

c) Double 'l' plus 'y'

painful	painfully
careful	carefully harmful skilful cruel	cruelly practical accidental mental thankful equal annual cheerful

d) For the other adjectives, simply add 'ly' polite wise immediate active

Exceptions include;

shy true whole public

Some adverbs are formed from verbs. Here, the verb is changed to its past form before adding -ly to form the adverb.

e.g. Verb	Adverb
hurry	hurriedly
worry	worriedly
repeat	repeatedly

Exercise

Complete each sentence below by using a correct adverb from the word in brackets.

1. The traffic officer arrested the drunken driver. (immediate)
2. The boys crept..... from the room. (stealthy)

6. honourable speakers

WEEK SEVEN

LESSON FIVE

TOPIC: DEBATING

ASPECT: STRUCTURE

Using; “despite (the fact that)”

Points to note

- It has the same meaning as although, even though.
- It shows two contradicting qualities of a person or thing.
- It can be used with an abstract noun.
- When the above pattern begins a sentence, a comma is necessary.

Examples

Nagawa is blind. She can debate convincingly.

- Despite the fact that Nagawa is blind, she can debate convincingly.*
- Nagawa can debate convincingly despite the fact that she is blind.
- Despite Nagawa's blindness, she can debate convincingly.*

LESSON FOUR

TOPIC: DEBATING ASPECT: SPEECHES

QUESTIONS IN THE INDIRECT SPEECH

Points to note;

- Question marks are not applied.
- The word that (as a conjunction) is not used.
- Reporting verbs: wondered, asked, wanted to know, inquired of and so on are used.
- If the question in the direct speech begins with: what, who, when, why, how or which, the question word is still used in the indirect speech.
- Use whether/if for direct speech statements that begin with helper (auxiliary) verbs such as do, will, is, has, have, was, were and so on.
For example: “Do you know my name?” the stranger asked the child.
The stranger asked the child whether he knew his name.

Examples

1. “When will the debate commence?” Whitney asked.
 - Donald asked when the debate would commence.
 - Donald wanted to know when the debate would commence.
2. “How does Tim reach school? Jesca asked.

3. “Tim, how do you reach school?” Jesca asked.
 - Jesca asked Tim how he reached school.
 - Jesca wanted to know from Tim how he reached school.
 - Jesca inquired of Tim how he reached school.

Note carefully

For questions that begin with helper words (for example; “Have you eaten?” Cathy asked.) use if or whether to report in the indirect speech.

Examples:

Direct: “Have you eaten yet?” Cathy asked.

Indirect: Cathy asked if he had eaten. Or Cathy wanted to know whether he had already eaten.

Exercise

Rewrite the sentences below in the indirect speech correctly.

1. “Can you read and write?” the teacher asked the old man.
2. The guardian asked his ward, “Will you attend class on Martyrs Day?”
3. “Why are you late today?” my teacher asked me.
4. The dentist asked, “How old are you?”
